

Quality Matrix

One of the key documents produced by QA is the quality matrix, which summarises the key quality activities that are required to be carried out for each project and sets targets for the performance of each of activity. By managing the detail activities, the overall quality performance of the project is improved.